INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING AN EVICTION (POSSESSION ONLY-TERMINATE MONTH TO MONTH TENANCY)

These forms should be used when a landlord desires possession of the premises from a tenant for reasons other than nonpayment of rent and there is no provision as to duration of tenancy (month to month tenancy). The landlord is referred to as the plaintiff and the tenant as the defendant. These forms should be typed or printed legibly. Please be sure to include a telephone number on the complaint for Eviction where the Clerk's Office or Sheriff's Department may reach you.

Pursuant to F.S. 83.43(3), "landlord" is defined as the owner of a dwelling unit.

The plaintiff in a landlord/tenant action must be the owner of the property. The plaintiff must provide proof of ownership of the property when filing an eviction complaint. This proof may be a copy of the property record card from the St. Lucie County Property Appraiser's office at www.paslc.org or a warranty deed.

Failure to file proof of ownership of the property will result in the judge dismissing your complaint and loss of any filing fees.

STEP 1

The following paperwork and fees are required to process your Eviction case:

- PAPERWORK:
 - 30-Day Notice to Tenant
 - Copy of rental agreement, if applicable
 - Complaint for Eviction
 - Two (2) copies of all documents for each defendant (service & mailing)
 - One (1) copy of all documents for your records
 - Pre-Addressed Stamped Envelopes: one with each defendant's name and address
 - Proof of Ownership
 - Property Management Agreement
- FILING FEE: (payable to ST. LUCIE COUNTY CLERK OF COURT)
 - $185.00 cash/money order/MasterCard or Visa
 - PLUS $10.00 PER SUMMONS / PER DEFENDANT
- SERVICE FEE: (payable to St Lucie County Sheriff's Dept.)
 - $40.00 per defendant, payable by money order, cashier's check or business check
 - $90.00 Writ of Possession (paid after issuance of Judgment)

STEP TWO

File the original, copies and envelopes with the Clerk of Courts County Civil Division. You may file your complaint at either of the following locations:

South County Courthouse Annex
250 N.W. Country Club Drive, Room 115
Port St Lucie, Florida 34986

Clerk of the Circuit Court & Comptroller, St. Lucie County
201 South Indian River Drive, First Floor
Fort Pierce, Florida 34950

All court hearings are held at the South County Annex.

Once the Clerk's Office has processed your complaint, an Eviction Summons will be issued and a Certificate of Mailing will be prepared (if a self-addressed stamped envelope was provided). Service of the Complaint and Summons may be perfected by either sheriff's service or you may hire a private process server.

For Service of Process:

St Lucie County Sheriff's Department - Civil Office
218 South Second Street
Fort Pierce, Florida 34950

St Lucie County Sheriff's Department (for service of evictions in Port St Lucie & Jensen Beach only)
250 N.W. Country Club Drive
Port St Lucie, Florida 34986

If you have questions in regards to the service of the summons, you may contact the sheriff's department at 772-462-3214 or 772-462-3271.

Once the defendant(s)/tenant(s) has been served, they will have five days (excluding the day of service, Saturdays, Sundays & legal holidays) to file a written response to your complaint.

STEP THREE

If the defendant files a response within the required time, the judge assigned to your case will review the file and determine whether or not the case should be set for hearing. If a hearing is scheduled, all parties will be notified by mail. The owner or an attorney must appear at the hearing. If a hearing is not scheduled, the judge will issue a written decision and copies will be mailed to all parties.

If the defendant does not file a response within the required time, you may then file for a default.

STEP FOUR

Complete and file the following:

Original Motion for Clerk's Default – Residential Eviction with copies for defendant(s) and yourself

Original Non Military Affidavit

Original Motion for Default Final Judgment – Residential Eviction

Original proposed Final Judgment for Possession with copies for defendant(s) and yourself

Self-addressed stamped envelopes with each defendant's name and address and your name and address.

Once the Judge enters your Final Judgment for Possession, you will need a Writ of Possession to remove the tenants from the property.

STEP FIVE

Issuance of the Writ of Possession is not an automatic process. To obtain the Writ of Possession, you may call the Clerk of Court, County Civil Division at 772-462-6900. Deliver the Writ to the sheriff's department (at either address located above) along with the service fee of $90.00. The sheriff's department will schedule a date and time to meet you at the premises to remove any persons remaining and deliver possession back to you.

If the defendant vacates the premises or settlement is reached, the Plaintiff may file a Voluntary Dismissal which is available on the Clerk of Court's website at www.stlucieclerk.gov

DISCLAIMER

We encourage the electronic filing (e-filing) of all court related forms. Through e-filing, the court system has become more efficient and accessible to the citizens of the State of Florida. In addition to dramatically reducing paperwork in Florida's courts, the portal allows for immediate access to case information and the ability for you to file documents and access case information from the comfort of your home.

DIY (Do-It-Yourself) Florida is a free-to-use program to assist in completing official court forms and filing them with the Clerk's office. Accessed within the Florida Courts E-Filing Portal, DIY Florida uses interview questions to walk you through the steps and automatically prepare the forms. Once completed, the forms can be sent through the E-Filing Portal to electronically file the forms with our office. Standard filing fees and convenience fees may apply.

To register for an E-Filing Portal account which allows you to electronically file your forms, and to get more information regarding what forms are available, please visit www.myfloridacourtaccess.com/authority/diy.

If you choose not to utilize the DIY service, the following forms are provided as a courtesy. The use of these forms is not intended as a substitute for legal advice from an attorney. The provided forms are meant to serve as a guide and to assist pro se (self-represented) litigants in preparing documents. The use of these forms does not mean that a judge will accept your documents. You may be required to re-do your documents or obtain and file additional documents once the judge has reviewed your case. Each case has its own particular set of circumstances, and an attorney may advise you of what is best for you in your individual situation. If you have questions or concerns regarding your legal rights, it is strongly recommended that you talk to an attorney. 83.46 Rent; duration of tenancies.—

(1) Unless otherwise agreed, rent is payable without demand or notice; periodic rent is payable at the beginning of each rent payment period; and rent is uniformly apportionable from day today.

(2) If the rental agreement contains no provision as to duration of the tenancy, the duration is determined by the periods for which the rent is payable. If the rent is payable weekly, then the tenancy is from week to week; if payable monthly, tenancy is from month to month; if payable quarterly, tenancy is from quarter to quarter; if payable yearly, tenancy is from year to year.

(3) If the dwelling unit is furnished without rent as an incident of employment and there is no agreement as to the duration of the tenancy, the duration is determined by the periods for which wages are payable. If wages are payable weekly or more frequently, then the tenancy is from week to week; and if wages are payable monthly or no wages are payable, then the tenancy is from month to month. In the event that the employee ceases employment, the employer shall be entitled to rent for the period from the day after the employee ceases employment until the day that the dwelling unit is vacated at a rate equivalent to the rate charged for similarly situated residences in the area. This subsection shall not apply to an employee or a resident manager of an apartment house or an apartment complex when there is a written agreement to the contrary.
